

THE TAMPA TRIBUNE

October 28, 2006

BUSINESS BRIEFS

On Friday, the National Maritime Services of Fort Lauderdale took custody of the Casino Royale gambling ship on a federal court order pending resolution of a wage dispute raised by the ship's crew, said Mark Brown, operations manager for National Maritime. The 400-foot ship that operated from Treasure Island had been under renovation at Tampa Bay Shipbuilding & Repair.